PREFACE.

TO SHIPPERS & THE TRADE.

The Company, in submitting this edition (XI), of their Illustrated Catalogue to their connection, most respectfully request that orders be selected from this edition in preference to any former one. Many old and obsolete patterns will not be found in this book.

It must be remembered that the continued improvements made from time to time by the Company in the mechanical arrangement of the moulds for Pressing Glass, frequently make old patterns of inferior value to more modern goods.

The Company would especially call attention to the Cut and Engraved Carafes, Butters, Jugs, etc., etc., as being of good value, artistic in design, and at the same time very inexpensive.

The patterns, where practical, are drawn one-third scale.

After six months from this date the Company cannot engage to execute orders for old and obsolete patterns not illustrated.

Fancy Goods will be found in a separate Book (XII).
